This illustrated children's book features 26 full-color images to accompany John Greenleaf Whittier's poem and to bring the summer days of his youth to life. Adapted and illustrated by Lisa Greenleaf, a descendent of the Greenleaf Whittier family, Ms. Greenleaf has included details and imagery from Whittier's childhood home in Haverhill, MA to recount his youthful observations.

Recall the freedom of running barefoot in the summer sun!

Pluck strawberries from the page

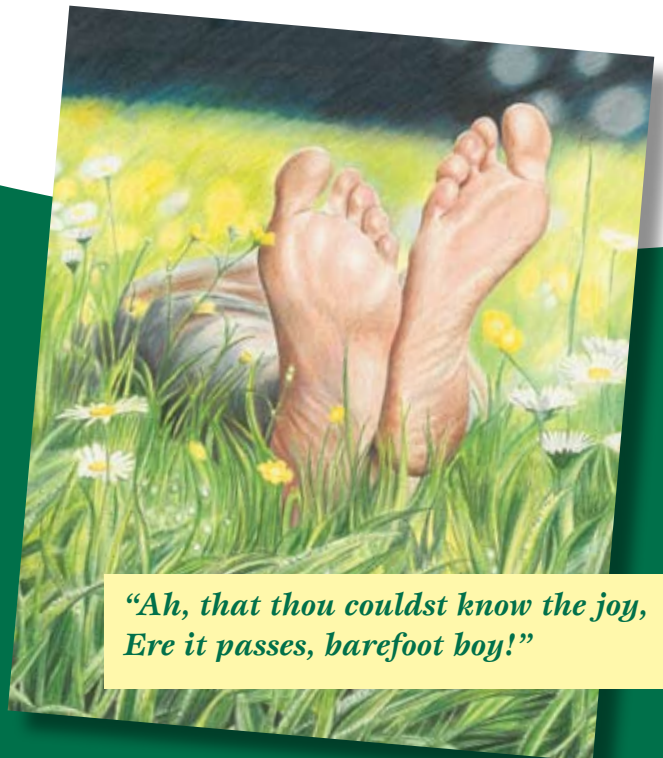

*“From the heart I give thee joy,
I was once a barefoot boy!”*

*“Kissed by strawberries on the hill;
With the sunshine on thy face,”*

Feel the morning dew on bare feet

Hear creeks meandering through a New England setting

*“Ah, that thou couldst know the joy,
Ere it passes, barefoot boy!”*
