Chapter 3 - Review

Sarah Carries On
1823 - 1827

Summary: Sarah supports her children by working in a store and by writing. Her novel, Northwood, grabs the attention of publisher John Blake.

1. Which organization helped Sarah after David's death?

2. What was the name of Sarah's first book? What kind of book was it?

3. What was unique about Sarah's novel, Northwood?

4. Why did Sarah hesitate to accept John Blake's job offer?

Opinion Essay: In Chapter One you learned that many people living in the early 1800s did not believe women were capable of "intellectual learning." Write 3 to 4 sentences that show how that attitude affected the laws of that period. (Write your answer on the back of this sheet of paper)

Challenge! Chapter Three includes some verses from Sarah's first book of poetry. The quoted lines show Sarah's sadness as well as her gratitude. Follow Sarah's example and write 4 rhymed lines that tell about a time you were sad or grateful. (Write your answer on the back of this sheet of paper)
